DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 8/15/2005 has been entered.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11-16, 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. Conventional transitional pieces from the outlet of a gas turbine to an inlet of a water heater or boiler are trapezoidal in cross section, as shown by applicant in figure 1, see also Mittricker 2004/0200225 and Nielsen 5493854. The independent claims claim "wherein the chimney orifice is a flow duct that is shorter than a vertical height of the transition piece." Because the transition piece has a variable height between a minimum at the outlet of the gas engine and a maximum at the inlet of the water heater/boiler, the disclosure does not enable which height of the transition piece the chimney does not exceed in its height. For example, and although figures are not supposed to be drawn at scale unless taught so, the figures in Nielsen show a transition piece with a chimney whose height is greater than the transition piece height at the turbine outlet, but smaller than the transition piece height at the boiler inlet. Same argument can be made about Mitricker. No new matter will be permitted into the description in order to cure this deficiency.

4. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

5. Claims 1-3, 5-9, 11-16, 18-19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. For the reasons discussed above, the claims fail to delimit their meets and bounds with respect to the height of the chimney relatively to the variable height of the transition piece, and therefore are indefinite.
